

yogaview Teacher Training Scholarships for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color

yogaview is committed to making our studio and the yoga community at large more inclusive and accessible. There is extreme underrepresentation of Black, Indigenous and People of Color in the yoga world. We are determined to do what we can to change it, and we believe an impactful starting point is to train more BIPOC yoga instructors.

yogaview's BIPOC teacher training scholarship program offers partial scholarships to at least 2 qualifying individuals/ training. To qualify, prospective students must:

- -Self-identify as a BIPOC
- -Be able to attend all dates of the training
- -Have a consistent yoga practice for at least 2 years

To apply, email a 1-2 page application letter addressing the following to Lisa@yogaview.com:

- How long have you been practicing yoga, and who or what have been your primary influences?
- What is your intention behind taking the teacher training?
- How has yoga benefited you?
- How much help do you need with tuition and what are your circumstances?
- Please tell us something about yourself that you think will help you be successful in the training.
